

The background of the poster is white with a dark purple border. It is decorated with various Mexican-themed elements: at the top, there are colorful circular patterns (sombras) and a string of triangular bunting flags in red, yellow, green, and blue. Below the bunting, there is a string of rectangular flags in yellow, pink, green, orange, blue, and red. Scattered throughout the background are small, colorful geometric shapes like triangles and squares. At the bottom, there are illustrations of a brown acoustic guitar, a brown ceramic jar with blue and red patterns, two maracas, and a green cactus.
